

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the court of La Neuveville

Following your orders of 5 February I have placed on sale the property of Daniel Cellier in accordance with the notarized instructions that I herewith return to you. The following pieces of property have been sold:

1. The garden enVaux to Albert Wyss for f 220.-
2. The chenerière aux Épinettes to J.J. Schem for f 200.-
3. The house to Jean Zeller for f 1740.-

No buyer has yet been found for the two vineyards that remain to be sold.

Please, accept the assurances of my consideration.

La Neuveville 11 March 1852.
